

Age 7–10: What do you love about being Métis?

I sometimes do the fingerweaving. I enjoy it. The only thing is that one thing is that it takes too long. I get frustrated or angry. But, for some reason I continue. The mini sash is inspired by the Hudson Bay blanket. I switched the white with the red because the blood of the Métis Nation and women. The blue for water and life, green for the earth, plants and Mother Earth. White for the Creator and the snow, yellow for growth and prosperity.
