

Age 7 – 10: What do you love about being Métis?

It represents the way I feel about my culture. I was inspired by the moccasin and beading, beading is a big part of the Métis culture. It was also interesting to make and find ways to make it with clay and beads. The project makes me feel good, happy and thankful. I hope other are inspired by my art to learn about my culture.