

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Bruce Gladue Otipemisiwak Legacy Award

Area of Study: Open to all areas of study

Award Value: $2,500 (1 Award)

Deadline: October 15th of Each Year

Description: The Bruce Gladue Otipemisiwak Legacy Award honors the remarkable legacy of a dedicated advocate for Métis self-government and rights. This award recognizes individuals who demonstrate outstanding leadership, influence, and commitment to advancing Métis self-government, rights, and self-determination. It celebrates those who have significantly impacted the Métis community through advocacy, legal advancements, or political engagement, inspiring others to continue these vital efforts.

Awarded annually, the Bruce Gladue Otipemisiwak Legacy Award serves not only as a tribute to a key figure in our Otipemisiwak Métis Nation within Alberta history but also encourages ongoing efforts towards enhancing Métis governance and self-determination.

The awards will be presented at the Delia Gray Métis Week Gala held in November of each year, and recipients are encouraged to attend the event in person to receive their award. The selection committee will consist of representatives from Bruce Gladue's family and members of the Métis Nation of Alberta.

Recipients will receive a tax receipt (T4A) for the award.

- Requirements:
- Completed application form (Must be registered with the Otipemisiwak Metis Student and Alumni Association (OMSA))
 - Reference letter(s)
 - Written section describing your eligibility and motivation for returning to school
 - Proof of registration and details on the post secondary program and/or courses in which you are enrolled

Selections: Selections will be made by Bruce Gladue's family.
