Preamble

WHEREAS this preamble adopts and builds on the history and narrative set out in the Declaration of Self-Determination and Self-Government and Foundational Principles in the Otipemisiwak Métis Government Constitution;

WHEREAS Alberta Métis established the Métis Nation of Alberta, including its predecessors, as a distinct political, legal, economic, social, and cultural institution based on the Métis Nation's inherent rights to self-determination and self-government;

WHEREAS over generations, like-minded Métis have come together to build the Métis Nation of Alberta into the democratic and now federally recognized government that represents the Métis Nation within Alberta;

WHEREAS because the federal government, as the level of government with constitutional responsibility to advance relationships with all Indigenous peoples, historically denied collectively held Métis rights, including the Métis right to self-government, and refused to negotiate nation-to-nation, government-to-government treaties with the Métis, Métis governments such as the Métis Nation of Alberta were forced to incorporate entities under provincial laws to act as their legal and administrative arms;

WHEREAS the Métis Association of Alberta, as the predecessor to the Métis Nation of Alberta, incorporated an association under the Societies Act (Alberta) in 1961 to facilitate funding arrangements and establish intergovernmental relations with the federal and provincial governments;

WHEREAS in 1991, the Métis Association of Alberta changed its name to the Métis Nation of Alberta and its members adopted new bylaws for the association to “continue the process to self-determination and self-government of the Métis Nation”;

WHEREAS the Métis Nation of Alberta—as a Métis government—maintains that its reliance on the Métis Nation of Alberta Association to serve as its legal and administrative arm does not and should not undermine or diminish its self-government;

WHEREAS over generations, Alberta Métis have called for a Métis Nation within Alberta constitution to be adopted as Métis law and for a treaty with the Crown based on section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982 to establish a nation-to-nation, government-to-government relationship with Canada that no longer requires the Métis Nation of Alberta to rely on an incorporated society to serve as its legal and administrative arm;

WHEREAS in November 2022, after years of consultation, all registered citizens of the Métis Nation of Alberta over 16 years of age, also being members of the Métis Nation of Alberta Association, had an opportunity to vote on the ratification of the Otipemisiwak Métis Government Constitution;

WHEREAS through this ratification vote, the citizens of the Métis Nation of Alberta exercised their inherent right to self-government and adopted the Otipemisiwak Métis Government Constitution as Métis law;

WHEREAS the Otipemisiwak Métis Government Constitution establishes the Otipemisiwak Métis Government as the successor to the Métis Nation of Alberta;

NOW, THEREFORE the members of the Métis Nation of Alberta Association have adopted these new Bylaws in order that the Association may give effect to the Otipemisiwak Métis Government Constitution following the first election of the Otipemisiwak Métis Government to be held in September 2023 and until such time as a treaty between the Métis Nation within Alberta and the Crown is ratified and recognizes the legal status and capacity of the Otipemisiwak Métis Government through the said treaty and federal implementation legislation.

Article 1: Name of the Association

- 1.1 This document gives authority and responsibility to the Métis Nation of Alberta Association.

Article 2: The Association's Role and Application of the Bylaws

- 2.1 Until the Coming Into Force Date, the Citizens intend that the Association is and will be the legal and administrative arm of the MNA, and, subject only to the requirements of the Act, the Association shall conduct its affairs pursuant to these Bylaws and the Pre-Constitution Bylaws (in accordance with the transitional provisions in Article 15).
- 2.2 Upon the Coming Into Force Date, the Citizens intend that the Association, together with the District Councils, will become and will be the legal and administrative arm of the Otipemisiwak Métis Government as the successor to the MNA, and, subject only to the requirements of the Act, the Association will be governed by and shall conduct its affairs pursuant to these Bylaws and the Constitution (and for certainty, the Pre-Constitution Bylaws will cease to have any force or effect).
- 2.3 When a treaty between the Crown and Métis Nation within Alberta comes into effect, the treaty and federal implementation legislation will recognize the Otipemisiwak Métis Government's legal status and capacity, and the Association will be continued under federal law or wound down, as to be determined by the Citizens.
- 2.4 Nothing in these Bylaws extinguishes, defines, creates, modifies, limits, restricts, or surrenders any rights, interests, or claims of the Métis Nation within Alberta or of any Citizen, including the inherent rights to self-determination and self-government.

DECLARATION OF SELF-DETERMINATION AND SELF-GOVERNMENT

When the Government of Canada presented itself at our doors it found us at peace. It found that the Métis people of the North-West could not only live well without it ... but that it had a government of its own, free, peaceful, well-functioning, contributing to the work of civilization in a way that the Company from England could never have done without thousands of soldiers. It was a government with an organized constitution whose jurisdiction was more legitimate and worthy of respect, because it was exercised over a country that belonged to it.

Louis Riel, 1885

We, the Métis people of the historic North-West, honour the Creator;

We, the Métis people of the historic North-West, are one of the Indigenous peoples of North America;

We are a people born of the Creator, our First Nations foremothers, European forefathers, the land, love, kinship, freedom, trade, resistance, and collective action; we share a spirituality, history, territory, values, traditions, laws, language, music, dance, art, customs, practices, and institutions;

Over the generations, we have been called Louis Riel's people, lii Michif, the flower beadwork people, Half-breeds, and simply the Métis; for over two centuries we have advanced and defended our nationhood—as the Métis Nation; we will continue to do so forever;

We are also known as the Otipemisiwak, a name given to us by our Cree kin meaning 'the free people' or 'their own boss'; we embrace this name because it embodies our peoplehood, freedom, and independence as well as our personal and collective sovereignty;

As a people, we hold the inherent rights of self-determination and self-government as well as all the rights that inhere in all peoples, including those recognized in international law and described in the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples;

Within what is now known as Alberta, we were here before Canada became a country and before Alberta became a province; our lands, families, kinship, settlements, and communities continue to extend throughout the province today: we are the Métis Nation within Alberta;

As a people, we have never surrendered—and will never surrender—our inherent rights, including our rights of self-determination and self-government;

Over the generations, we have consistently and repeatedly fought for and exercised our right of self-government within the North-West, from the governance of the buffalo hunt, to the Victory of Frog Plain, to the creation of provisional governments in 1869/70 and 1885, through to our political organization in what is now Alberta that led to the creation of L'Association des Métis d'Alberta et les Territoires du Nord-Ouest, the Métis Association of Alberta, and the Métis Nation of Alberta Association;

As a part of Canada's colonial history, we were subjected to a dishonourable, unjust, and illegitimate Métis scrip scheme that dispossessed our families, communities, and the Métis Nation within Alberta of our traditional lands and resources in breach of the Crown's commitments to us as set out in the Royal Proclamation, 1763, the Rupert's Land and North-Western Territory Order, 1870, and other solemn promises made to us as part of Canada's westward expansion;

Our ancestors, families, communities, and the Métis Nation within Alberta were also dishonourably, unjustly, and illegitimately dispossessed of our traditional lands and resources through other colonial schemes advanced by Canada and Alberta: repatriating Métis land is key to restoring our place and belonging;

Today, our Métis self-government in Alberta endures; we remain focussed on protecting and reclaiming our unceded traditional lands and resources; exercising our inherent and constitutionally protected Métis rights; renewing our relationship with the Crown and other Indigenous nations; supporting our Citizens, families, and communities to reach their full potential; and preserving and enriching our language, culture, and way of life as Métis;

As a people, we continue to seek justice and equitable settlement with the Crown for the dispossession of our people from our lands; reconciliation with the Métis Nation within Alberta requires acknowledgement, apology, and redress for the impact and sorry legacy of Métis scrip and other land dispossessions to which our Citizens, communities, and the Métis Nation within Alberta were subjected;

Through the perseverance of our foremothers and forefathers and our ongoing political, legal, and constitutional efforts, our unique and distinct existence as an Indigenous people, including our inherent right to self-government, has been recognized by Canada's Constitution;

To fully achieve and realize the promises made to us within Canada's Constitution, we seek to negotiate a modern-day treaty with the Crown, on a nation-to-nation, government-to-government basis, that recognizes our inherent rights to self-determination and self-government as well as our jurisdiction as a distinct order of Indigenous government within the Canadian federation;

Consistent with our goals, on June 27, 2019, after generations of struggle and dedication, we signed a Métis Government Recognition and Self-Government Agreement with Canada that recognizes the Métis Nation within Alberta's inherent right to self-government and sets out a process to ensure the full scope of our inherent jurisdiction and rights are recognized in Canadian law and are not limited or diminished by colonial law or as negotiations continue;

Now, as a people, we have come together, based on the democratic will of our Citizens, to adopt this Constitution of the Métis Nation within Alberta, which formally establishes the Otipemisiwak Métis Government and is the highest law of the Métis Nation within Alberta.
